

Exercise: Answering Prior Experience Questions

In this lesson, you will practice using "I" over "we" to help you craft perfect responses to prior experience questions in a real interview!

We'll cover the following ^

- “We” to “I” Exercise

“We” to “I” Exercise #

Practice highlighting your contributions with this exercise. Restate each sentence to remove all “we” language.

1. We found a bug in our interface and it took us all night to fix.
2. We took one look at the final product and immediately knew that it was not what the customer had requested.
3. My 4th grade teacher always wanted us to be five minutes early, and now none of us can be late.

---

We'll look at what hypothetical questions might look like and how to best tackle them in the next lesson!